

A letter asking the Eastbourne Gay Group for support, c.1978

My telephone call was probably just another job for you, but I would like to tell you that our short chat was a great help to me, thank you.

I am too afraid to attend one of your meetings, it would be too risky. Please believe me, if anything happened to my marriage I would end my life, I couldn't bear to see my wife and children suffer.

Perhaps it would be possible for you to arrange a meeting for me with someone in the same position as I am? If only just to talk I know it would help me.

I'll call and see you if and when I can, I do need your help very much.
